Quincy Memorial Bridge Opening

Location- Quincy Memorial Bridge/US 24 over the Mississippi River

– The Illinois Department of Transportation announces that east bound traffic over the Quincy Memorial Bridge will be restored beginning Monday morning, October 10, 2016. Existing traffic on the Bayview Bridge will remain one lane traffic in the west bound direction through Friday October 14, 2016 to facilitate removal of traffic control striping and apply bridge deck sealer to the existing deck.

Motorists are urged to slow down and be cautious while driving through this construction site and all work zones.

Please slow down and use extreme caution while driving through all work zones.
